

TOWN OF BEDFORD POLICE DEPARTMENT

Melvin Padilla
Chief of Police

PRESS RELEASE

On Monday, October 22, 2018 at about 3:45pm, the Bedford Police Department received a phone call from 168 Cantitoe Street regarding a suspicious package found in the mailbox.

An employee of the residence opened the package, revealing what appeared to be an explosive device. The employee placed the package in a wooded area and called the Bedford Police.

An extensive investigation commenced involving the Bedford Police Department, the Westchester County Police Department, the ATF and FBI. This case has been turned over to The Joint Terrorism Task Force Division of the FBI. Inquiries should be directed to the FBI's Office of Public Affairs (212)384-5000.
